I hope you will find that the book you are about read engages you and fills you with fascination in equal parts, as it did me.

Dr George Blair-West, psychiatrist and author,
The Girl in The Green Dress

A book to inspire and inform every trauma survivor who doubted they had a future.

Alan Close, *Before You Met Me

A candid, often harrowing account of the enduring power of the human spirit.

Michelle Tom, *10,000 Aftershocks

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Maggie lives in Northern NSW with her husband and family. As a trauma survivor, she shares her courageous journey towards wholeness, confronting stereotypes around mental health.

Her work appears in the Anthology, Don't Let Suicide Kill You and an early draft of SPLIT was long-listed for the Richell Emerging Writers Prize.
